

The Women of the Louisiana Legislature
2016-2020 Term
(updated 08-29-2016)

History

In 1986, the women of the legislature formed an organized group to address issues concerning women. The five women of the Louisiana Legislature at that time formed the Louisiana Legislative Women's Caucus. The founding members were then:

1. Rep. Mary Landrieu (now the United States Senator of Louisiana)
2. Rep. Kathleen Babineaux Blanco (former Governor of Louisiana)
3. Rep. Irma Muse Dixon
4. Rep. Diana Bajoie (later became a state senator and President Pro Tempore of the Louisiana Senate)
5. Rep. Naomi White Warren

Who We Are:

To date, there are 22 members of the Louisiana Legislative Women's Caucus with 17 being state representatives and five (5) being state senators. The Women's Caucus is a cross-section of dynamic women of multi-tiered interests from across the state who are bound together by their commitment to serve the citizens of Louisiana through the legislative process.

Mission:

Our mission is to: (1) prepare the next generation of women leaders and (2) serve as the premiere voice and leading monitor of issues, legislation and policies, which impact women.
